Notice to subsequent purchaser or repacker. These articles are imported. The requirements of 19 U.S.C. and 19 C.F.R. Part 134 provided that the articles or their containers must be marked in a conspicuous place as legibly, indelibly and permanently as the nature of the article or container will permit, in such a manner as to indicate to an ultimate purchaser in the United States, the English name of the country of origin of the article.

The tomatoes shipped under this bill of lading and sold pursuant to this invoice are subject to: 1) The December 2008 Suspension Agreement between the United States Department of Commerce and certain tomato growers; 2) any subsequent amendments, clarifications or modifications thereof; and 3) certain letter agreements between yourselves and ourselves regarding the same, each of which is incorporated by this reference as if fully set for the herein. Copies of said agreements will be sent to you upon request.

The perishable agricultural commodities listed on this invoice are sold subject to the statutory trust authorized by section 5(c) of the Perishable Agricultural Commodities Act, 1930 (7 U.S.C. 499e(c)). The seller of these commodities retains a trust claim over these commodities, all inventories of food or other products derived from these commodities, and any receivables or proceeds from the sale of these commodities until full payment is received.

All claims must be supported by USDA Inspection Certificate.

After payment is due, interest will accrue on unpaid balances at a rate of 10% per annum until paid. In the event legal or other actions are commenced to collect sums due under this invoice, the prevailing party shall be entitled to reimbursement of all costs and fees including reasonable attorney's fees incurred.

With the exception of tomatoes which are covered by the Suspension Agreement, any variance noted by the receiver as to quantity, or price disparity must be brought to seller's attention within 24 hours after the receipt of the merchandise. No adjustments of the above items will be honored unless seller is notified as herein stated.

No claims accepted unless supported by USDA Inspection within 24hrs from Arrival and when confirmed by an adjustment memo from us

Notice to subsequent purchaser or repacker. These articles are imported. The requirements of 19 U.S.C. and 19 C.F.R. Part 134 provided that the articles or their containers must be marked in a conspicuous place as legibly, indelibly and permanently as the nature of the article or container will permit, in such a manner as to indicate to an ultimate purchaser in the United States, the English name of the country of origin of the article.

The tomatoes shipped under this bill of lading and sold pursuant to this invoice are subject to: 1) The December 2008 Suspension Agreement between the United States Department of Commerce and certain tomato growers; 2) any subsequent amendments, clarifications or modifications thereof; and 3) certain letter agreements between yourselves and ourselves regarding the same, each of which is incorporated by this reference as if fully set forth herein. Copies of said agreements will be sent to you upon request.

The perishable agricultural commodities listed on this invoice are sold subject to the statutory trust authorized by section 5(c) of the Perishable Agricultural Commodities Act, 1930 (7 U.S.C. 499e(c)). The seller of these commodities retains a trust claim over these commodities, all inventories of food or other products derived from these commodities, and any receivables or proceeds from the sale of these commodities until full payment is received.

All claims must be supported by USDA Inspection Certificate.

After payment is due, interest will accrue on unpaid balances at a rate of 10% per annum until paid. In the event legal or other actions are commenced to collect sums due under this invoice, the prevailing party shall be entitled to reimbursement of all costs and fees including reasonable attorney's fees incurred.

With the exception of tomatoes which are covered by the Suspension Agreement, any variance noted by the receiver as to quantity, or price disparity must be brought to seller's attention within 24 hours after the receipt of the merchandise. No adjustments of the above items will be honored unless seller is notified as herein stated.

No claims accepted unless supported by USDA Inspection within 24hrs from Arrival and when confirmed by an adjustment memo from us.
